34th District Court Offers a Full Agenda of Activity for Participants

"Take Our Daughters and Sons to Work Day"

BY MARGARET E. O'KELLEY

A packed agenda was the order of the day as the 34th District Court delayed the national Ms. Foundation, "Take Our Daughters and Sons to Work Day" and hosted theirs on Thursday, May 1. The new program previously called, "Bring Your Child to Work Day," encourages boys and girls to create a more equitable future.

A busy docket allowed the 37 youngsters visiting the Romulus Court to see the internal workings of a typical day in the Civil, Criminal/Traffic and Probation Departments. 34th District Court serves the cities of Belleville and Romulus and the townships of Hurons, Sumpter and Van Buren.

Following a continental breakfast in the break room, guests were welcomed by 34th District Court Chief Judge Tina Brooks Green. Judge Brian A. Oakley was confined to adeptly handling a busy docket in his courtroom. Judge David M. Parrott was absent from the event due to a death in the family. But, Judge Parrott was pleased at the Court participation for the event.

"It was great that so many employees took this opportunity to show their kids how hard they work," said Judge Parrott. "I'm sure the kids came away with some good ideas for career opportunities."

Al Hindman, Director of Security showed the Court visitors the three Courtrooms and prisoner holding facility before getting the opportunity to view the metal detection site by Court officers, Neil Jones, Dan Mefford, Bruce Preston, Dan

Sanford and Tom Schmidtke. After a series of enthusiastic questions for the court officers, it was time to see the job responsibilities of their host and what is required to process the paperwork through the Court system.

Chief Judge Tina Brooks Green accompanied Hindman on the tour of the stark prisoner-holding facility. "When that door slams, you don't want to be on the other side," Green told the youngsters.

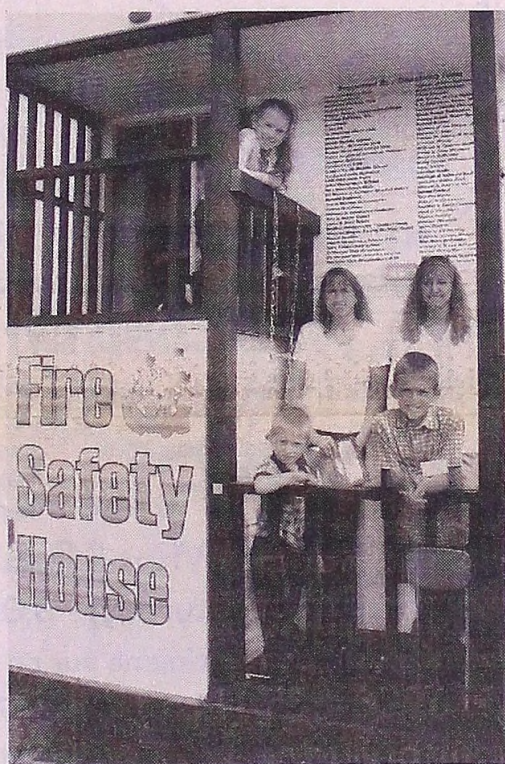

The Civil Department welcomed four young people who were under the guidance of court clerks; Tracie Coffee who brought her son, Joey, and Jacqueline Peagler brought her grandchildren: Shantrice Tatum, Donald Myles Jr., and Aaron Myles. Clerk Linda Palmatier volunteered to take Shantrice under her supervision for the day to allow all the children time to fully understand the department explained Civil Department Director Oneita Davis.

"The children followed a day-long agenda which gave them not only a view of the Civil Department's work schedule, but also how the Court interacts with the venues, police, fire and canine units," said Davis. "We are glad to say that this yearly experience becomes a learning environment for all of us."

While a busy day was taking place inside the Court, outside was also a flurry of activity. Several invited police and fire vehicles and officials were on hand to share their experiences with the youngsters.

Police cars from Romulus and Van Buren were present to allow guests the opportunity to visit the law enforcement and fire officials and sit inside squad cars and view fire trucks. Through the efforts of Van Buren Fire Chief Al Smolen, firefighters, Lt. David McNally, Danny Wilson and Seth Keinglass brought a fire truck and the fire smokehouse, on loan from Belleville, Sumpter and Van Buren for display to exhibit fire safety. It proved to be one of the popular exhibits, with a constant line of youngsters ready to climb inside the smokehouse. But, not to be outdone was the Van Buren SWAT team truck containing a wide variety of firearms and manned by SWAT Team Commander, Sgt. Greg Laurain and Officer Mark Buckberry. Van Buren Officer Mark Buxton showed up on the police motorcycle while Detectives Mike Moening and Ken Floro gave detailed information about the equipment in the walk-through Marine dive trailer. Van Buren Lt. Ken Brooks coordinated the efforts of all the officers along with highly impressive array of essential equipment.

Matthew Coffee and Joey Coffee joined Carol Greca and Tracie Coffee on the "ground level" while Tea Greca got the view from the top at the Fire Safety House, one of the many activities at the 34th District Court during "Take Our Daughters and Sons to Work Day."

Romulus proudly displayed a Romulus fire truck manned by Romulus firefighters, Dan Perron and Scott Ladach. The Romulus Police Department sent Officers Cliff West and Mike Grant who showcased their vehicles to the delight of Hunter Suchy and Cody Springer. Both youngsters sat in the vehicle and utilized the siren.

Judge Oakley was able to break from his busy docket to visit with many of the youngsters. "I was very pleased by the participation of our staff," said Oakley. "I was also delighted at the positive response we received from the public that were at Court on Thursday."

Visitors enjoyed a lunch of pizza, pop and salad while Judge Green presented certificates of participation. She also handed out souvenir bags purchased by court employees that contained coloring books, crayons, handcuffs and a GREAT (Gang Resistance Education and Training) t-shirt from Officer Keith Nickrand of the Huron Township DARE program. The group was joined by McGruff, the crime-fighting dog who mingled with the youngsters and posed for photographs.

"It was wonderful to see so many youngsters visiting our Court," said Judge Green. "I hope that they came away with a greater understanding of the Court system and its many components."

Following lunch, Executive Lt. Thomas V. Mitchell, bomb squad commander with the Wayne County Airport Police, spoke with the visitors citing current safety concerns and precautions. He brought with him several pieces of bomb detonation gear that were passed around to observe.

Belleville Police Sgt. Robert Dawson followed with comments of values and morals and how youngsters cope in today's society. "The society in which we live seems to be going to a point where if it's not mine what do I care," said Dawson. "I'm telling you, you need to start caring."

The Canine presentation continues to be the highlight of the day each year as Terry and Diane Shoenbach showcase their extraordinary canines. The Shoenbachs, owners of K-9

Academy, Romulus train canines for 56 law enforcement departments. Their individual dogs are "Judge," 12 years old, and "Jury," two years old. Joining them were "Harley," six years old, owned by Van Buren officer Ken Toney, "Major," five years old owned by Van Buren Officer Mike Eggelton. Romulus police canine officers Don Leonard brought "Smokey," six years old, and Darrin Wright brought "Bandit," six years old. Applause broke out frequently as the canines wowed their audience young and old.

Those participating in the day-long event included:

Civil Department visitors Joey and Matthew Coffee with mom, Tracie Coffee; Shantrice Tatum, Donald Myles Jr., and Aaron Myles grandchildren of Jacqueline Peagler. In the Criminal/Traffic Department Clerk Kim Carr brought sons Jonathan and Matthew Carr; Damien Harris with aunt Yahmi Nundley; Tyler Johnson with mom Michelle Johnson; Jeffrey Martin with mom Kim Martin; Jerilyn Chapp with mom Melissa who also brought niece Ashley Chapp; Elizabeth Lewis with aunt Melinda Shearrer; Cody and Cory Mortzfield with mom Heather Mortzfield; Erik Olson, Holly Olson and Johnathan Olson with dad, Mike Lamerato; Rachel Rohn with dad Jerry Rohn; Hunter and Madison Silkowski with dad Art Silkowski; Hunter Suchy with mom Mindy Suchy; Eric Wands with friend Neil Jones; Paige Wallace with grandmother Boots Pond; Nathan and Roman Williams with dad Steve Williams; Cody Springer with grandmother Dawn Springer; Savannah and Miranda Moffat with grandmother Sandy Crout; Joshua and Zachary Green with mom Judge Tina Brooks Green; Cheyenne Oakley with dad Judge Brian A. Letter to the Editor

Letter to the Editor Huron Weekly -

First I would like to apologize for the delay in getting this into the paper. I would like to start this off by letting everyone know how proud I am to be a resident of Huron Twp. On Wed 4/21/03 my co-workers and friends from the Huron School District hosted a spaghetti dinner benefit for my husband Jim Burnham, who was diagnosed with cancer on 2/03. I can't tell you how overcome with emotion and gratitude that my family has left for this.

Nobody ever really expects anything like this to happen in their lives and it is good to know that there is a lot of support in this community and from my dearest friends and co-workers. I would like to thank everyone personally but I don't know how that would be possible. I would however like to thank all of the people and businesses who contributed to the event. Especially transportation employees and Dixie and the cooks also. Please know we are forever grateful for your thoughtfulness.

Love, Katrina Burnham & family

This week the salad is an updated cersion of an old favorite.
Many people have eaten a Spinach Salad with a heavy, hot bacon dressing, but I prefer to make mine with a light balsamic vinaigrette and bits of bacon instead.

Cold Spinach Salad with White Balsamic Viniagrette

Serves 4

8 cups fresh Spinach Leaves, torn into bite-size pieces.

Red onion - Three 1/4" rings per salad

4 strawberries, sliced into a fan

4 Tbs. Tomato, diced or Cherry Tomatoes

4 strips bacon, cooked and chopped

Place 2 cups of spinach per plate on 4 plates. Arrange the onion, strawberry, tomato and bacon in equal amounts on top of the spinach. Pour the dressing over each salad just before serving.

Dressing

1/2 cup olive oil

2/3 cup White Balsamic Vinegar

1/2 tsp. Garlic Powder

1 scant tsp. drived Basil - crushed

1 scant tsp. Oregano - crushed

Salt and pepper to taste

Combine all of the ingredients in a jar and shake to combine. For best flavor, let stand at room temp 20- 30 minutes.

Summit Academy Students Compete in Speech Tournament

On May 9th, students from Summit Academy elementary classes competed to determine the building finalists at each grade level. It was a VERY TOUGH competition!. The judges had a very difficult time making their decisions. The building finalists were: (K-1) Christopher Demers, Allison Burley, and Tyler Watts; (2-3) Brian Flanagan, Stephanie Meade, Brianna Reeder; (4-5 Humorous) McKenna McCroskey, Alyssa Accord, and Nathen Bergman; (4-5 Serious) Baxter Gill, Anthony Elden and Nate Saldivar-Garcia.

On the following Thursday at Summit North, the next phase of the Tournament took place. The finals were held and, as usual, many audience members were awed by the participants. Students from both elementary building and the middle school competed in a variety of speech formats. The pieces ranged from short 4-line poems, to Shakespeare, to one called "Aliens on Vacation." Here are the results of an incredible night of talent:

(K-1) 1st-Christopher Demers, 2nd - Allison Burley, 3rd - Tyler Watts. (2-3) 1st - Stephanie Meade, 2nd - Brian Flanagan, and 3rd - Brianna Reeder. (4-5 Humorous) 1st - Alyssa Accord, 2nd - McKenna McCroskey, 3rd - Nate Saldivar-Garcia. (4-5 Serious) 1st - Anthony Elden, 2nd - Baxter Gill, 3rd - Nathan Bergman.
